

READ ALOUDS—STORIES/BOOKS:

Introduce key vocabulary through preview activities and build background as necessary using introductory video segments or recording your own short video on your phone and uploading for students to view before they go to a given URL. Following the online reading of the book, offer vocabulary practice activities, follow up reading comprehension and writing activities.

Teacher Resource Article: How to do an Interactive Read Aloud (you will need to implement this using Google Classroom resources)
<https://elementaryenglishlanguagelearners.weebly.com/blog/category/interactive-read-aloud>

Free Multicultural Literature Lessons to Go With Books You May Own

Lee and Low (Teacher Guides Available for All Books with Lesson Plan Ideas)
<https://www.leeandlow.com/educators/teacher-s-guides>

Free Story Sites (some have games and other activities)—make sure you create rich learning experiences around these materials:

Unite for Literacy
<https://www.uniteforliteracy.com/>

CBeebies (BBC)
<https://us.cbeebies.com/>
<https://espanol.cbeebies.com/>

Storyline Online
<https://www.storylineonline.net/>

One More Story
<http://www.onemorestory.com/>

Epic!
<https://www.getepic.com/>

Audio Stories:
StoryNory

<https://www.storynory.com/>

THROUGH YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY:

<https://www.tumblebooklibrary.com/Home.aspx?categoryID=77>

SAMPLE OF WHAT IS AVAILABLE ON HOOPLA Digital(read aloud)

https://www.hoopladigital.com/search?scope=everything&q=Shark%20Lady%20\(Read%20Along\))

Scholastic Magazines (right now they are offering free log in information)

<https://classroommagazines.scholastic.com/support/learnathome.html>

https://classroommagazines.scholastic.com/content/dam/classroom-magazines/magazines/support/scholastic-at-home/LAH-letter-educators_rev.pdf

Subscription Based

Reading Rainbow is also an app (each one is based on a theme tied to a book)

<https://www.levarburtonkids.com/skybrary>

compiled by Nancy Cloud; Jackie Nelson
on behalf of RI Teachers of ELLs (RITELL)

3/16/20